"Every year, the Township of Tiny is pleased to fund projects and programs through the Mayor's Charity Golf Tournament event, while supporting the Township's corporate values and strategic priorities," said Mayor David Evans. "Since 2015, the event has successfully contributed over $365,000 to more than 35 local not-for-profit and charitable organizations."

The Township of Tiny wishes to make this process an easy one for organizations. If an organization requires additional clarification or assistance with its application, please contact the staff contact outlined below or visit www.tiny.ca/events/golf.
