

Township of Tiny's Parkside Park tennis/pickleball courts to undergo resurfacing and receive dedicated pickleball courts

Date: May 3, 2024

TAKE NOTICE that the Parkside Park tennis/pickleball courts located in Balm Beach in the Township of Tiny will be under construction starting on May 6, 2024. The current damaged court surface will be removed, repaved, and covered with a new acrylic surface. The courts will also receive new fencing to improve the use of the courts and convert one tennis court into two dedicated pickleball courts. The image below illustrates how one of the three tennis courts will be converted into two dedicated pickleball courts. Construction on the Parkside Park courts is anticipated to be completed by June 14, 2024.

Residents are reminded that beginning the week of May 13 to 17, 2024, the tennis/pickleball courts will open in Perkinsfield Park (43 County Road 6 S) as well as the courts located at 11 Emilio Place.
