Counselor in Training Programs July 4th - 8th Wyevale Park

The CIT programs provide an excellent opportunity for youth to contribute to the community while developing leadership skills in a fun and safe environment. In order to maximize the experience, the CIT program is structured so that each participant completes a community engagement initiative, volunteers in the day camp setting and in age-appropriate activities. It is our goal that by the end of the program, each participant develops confidence, character and connections with peers. Participants must complete the CIT Program prior to the CIT Plus program.
